Mt Kaputar

Col looked into information for Mt Kaputar trip. Discussion on the Barraba Track as well as the main track in from Narrabri.

New set date is 14th & 15th August. This is the first weekend after the next meeting. Please contact Col and/or Leanne if interested. More info to be posted on the clubs Facebook page.

Barrington Snow Trip : sounded like a good idea at the time. Probably won't go ahead (need snow). The previous good snow weekend some six weeks saw most of the roads being closed by National Parks. The main Gloucester - Scone road is permanently closed on eastern side.

Barrington Tops October Long Weekend.

Ran by Dave. Full steam ahead. Will be located in Crown Conservation Area, either The Cascades or Water Gauge, both are on the Manning River. Grade: medium with heaps of fun. Pink ribbon will be used at corners and turn offs to show the way for others. Ample camping for everyone. Fishing right there on the door step. No amenities at either locations, though, Loo's are 30 min drive. Nice freezing cold swimming holes & water falls nearby. Maps and info will be posted as the time gets closer. Caravan un-friendly unfortunately.

Moore Creek Caves:

Ran by Clint. Day drive to go exploring Moore Creek Caves. To be ran in October at this stage.

Mark this on our calendar. Grade: easy.

Meeting close: 19:15hrs.

If you hanker for the rugged beauty of wild and remote places, then Barraba track in Mount Kaputar National Park, near Narrabri, will definitely get your heart pumping. Stretching from Kaputar plateau to the secluded eastern boundary, this steep track boasts spell-binding clifftop views. There's no reward without effort, and this limited access track will challenge experienced mountain bikers and walkers alike.

Several pioneering families lived in the Mount Kaputar area in extremely harsh conditions. Stockmen looked after sheep and cattle on the Kaputar Plateau, often going for months without seeing another person. Enjoy a walk to the historic Scutts Hut to experience the pioneers' harsh lifestyle. The Scutt family lived in the hut in the 1940s and 50s, and it has been carefully restored to its original condition. Most of the materials to build the hut and furniture were brought in by horse - even the rainwater tank.

An ancient heritage

Mount Kaputar National Park is the traditional Country of the Gamilaroi Aboriginal people. The park provided a rich resource for food, medicines, shelter and weapons and the landscape is part of Dreaming stories. Reminders of the Gamilaroi's connection to this ancient landscape are evident in Aboriginal rock carvings, campsites, marks on trees and axe grinding grooves throughout the park.

Colourful locals

Ascending the rocky track, stringybarks and blackbutts give way to majestic snow and mountain gums. You'll pass lush ferns and grass trees before arriving at the summit, where you'll glimpse the dramatic volcanic landscape of Mount Dowe and Lindsay Rock Tops, through the trees.

If you're cycling or walking, enjoy a hearty picnic lunch, before heading back down. If driving, round off your trip with a visit to picturesque Horton Falls.

WALKING TRACKS

1. Yulludunida Walking Track – hard 4km return
This hard walk starts from Green Camp car park and climbs up through woodland to the base of the Yulludunida Crater. From here there are no marked routes however experienced walkers can scramble over rocks to the summit of Mt Yulludunida. Return the same way.

2. Mount Coryah Walk – medium 4km return
This bushwalk leads from the Coryah Gap picnic area, up the stepped lava terraces of Coryah Mountain to the summit. Once you reach the lava terraces, the track circumnavigates the summit, revealing the mysterious shapes of the Wandewar Range and the wide open plains beyond. This is a spectacular walk for day trippers wanting a challenge or a great starting point for experienced and well-prepared hikers to explore Rudeen Wilderness Area. Not suitable for small children as there are exposed cliff edges.

3. English Rock Track – easy 2km return
This easy stroll leaves from the bottom of the Bark Hut camping area. This easy stroll leads to a lookout overlooking English Rock, another spectacular volcanic remnant.

4. The Governor (Corrunbrul Borawah) – medium 2km return
This return track begins at The Governor campsite and takes you to the peak of a large volcanic plug. The first 300m of this walk is sealed and wheel chair accessible to The Governor Lookout, overlooking the wilderness area. From here the track continues and walkers can scramble up a marked route to the top of The Governor. This part of the walk requires medium fitness and is not suitable for small children as there are exposed cliff edges.

5. The Kaputar Plateau Walk – medium 6km loop
This is a medium walk along the trails that follow part of the original 'pioneer track' from Coryah Gap to Dawsons Spring. The walk begins at the Kaputar Plateau fire trail, 2km beyond Bark Hut. Walk down the fire trail, experiencing the changes in vegetation with changes in altitude. At the junction with Scouts Hut fire trail turn right and continue walking along the fire trail until you meet Kaputar Road just above Bark Hut. Walk along the road to Dawsons Spring or return the way you came.

6. Scouts Hut – Kurrawonga Falls Walk – hard 19km
This track is the longest walking track in the park and should only be attempted by experienced, well-prepared bushwalkers. The track follows the Scouts Hut fire trail, beginning at the Kaputar Road above Bark Hut and continuing down the ridge. About 7km down the fire trail a steep walking track leads off to the left and down to Scouts Hut and Kurrawonga Falls. The return trip to Bark Hut is uphill along the same route.

7. Dawsons Spring Nature Trail – easy 1.4km loop
An easy loop walk from Dawsons Spring picnic area, this walk loops through the sub-alpine woodlands to the camping area. Interpretation signs along the way help you appreciate your surroundings in more depth.

8. Summit Walking Track – medium 2km return
This return track leads off the Dawsons Spring Nature Trail and connects Dawsons Spring with Mount Kaputar Summit, the highest point in the park.

9. Eckford Lookout – medium 1.8km return
From Eckford Carpark this easy walk takes you through forest and heathlands to Eckfords Lookout, overlooking the southern part of the park and the plains beyond. Return uphill the same way or link with the Bundabulla Circuit walk.

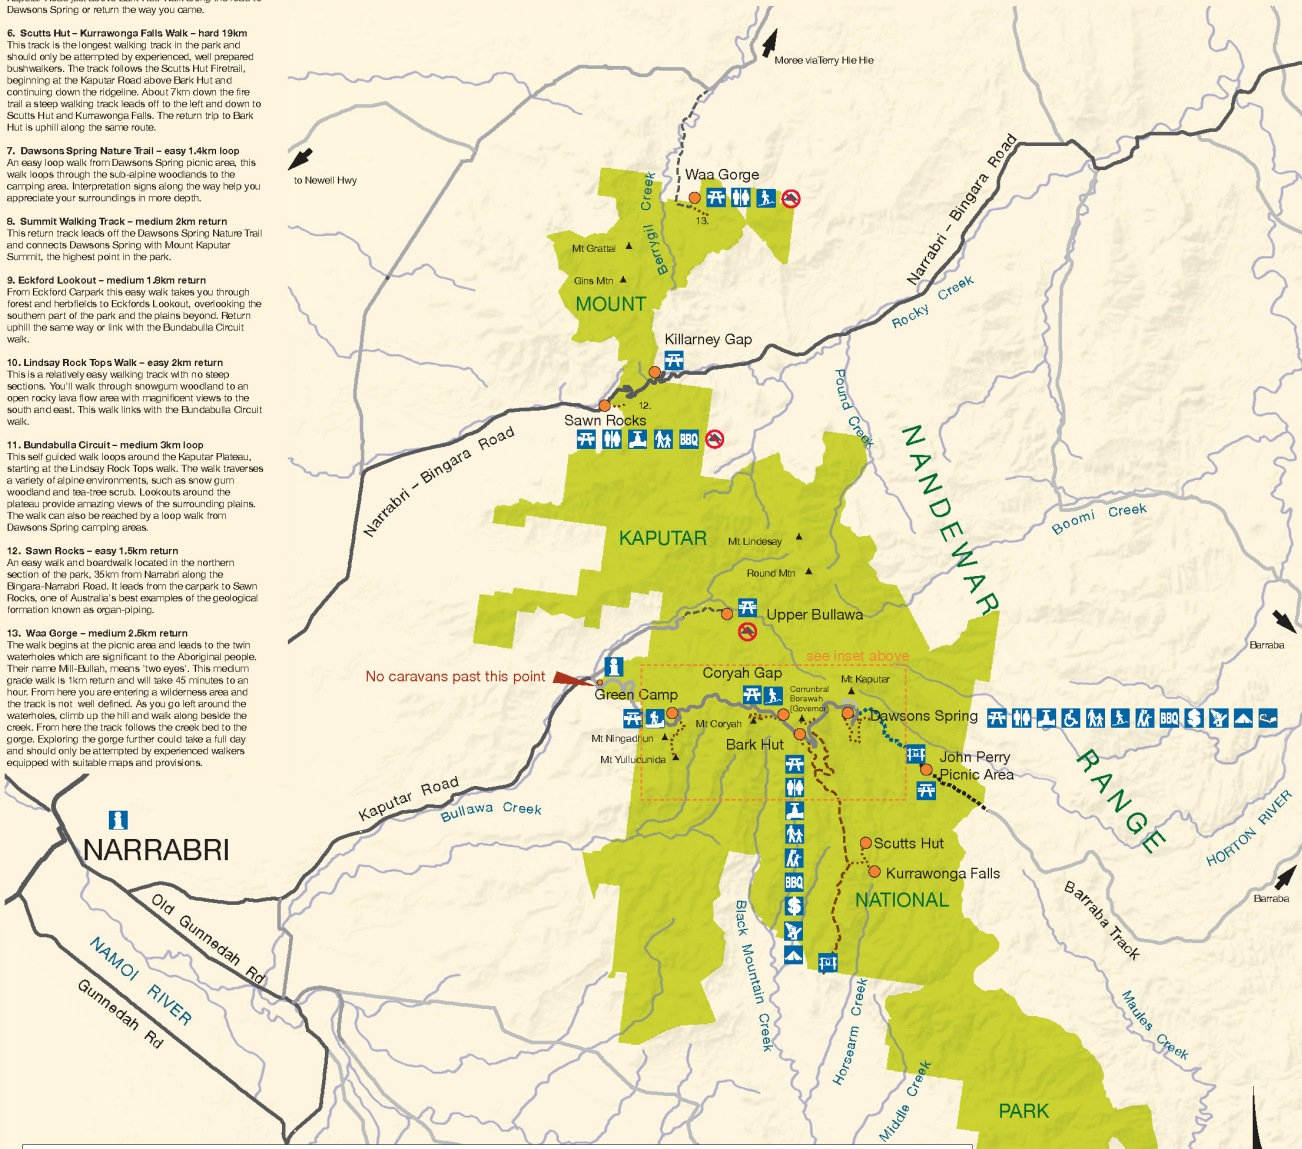

10. Lindsay Rock Tops Walk – easy 2km return
This is a relatively easy walking track with no steep sections. You'll walk through snowgum woodland to an open rocky lava flow area with magnificent views to the south and east. This walk links with the Bundabulla Circuit walk.

11. Bundabulla Circuit – medium 3km loop
This self-guided walk loops around the Kaputar Plateau, starting at the Lindsay Rock Tops walk. The walk traverses a variety of alpine environments, such as snowgum woodland and tea-tree scrub. Lookouts around the plateau provide amazing views of the surrounding plains. The walk can also be reached by a loop walk from Dawsons Spring camping areas.

12. Sawn Rocks – easy 1.8km return
An easy walk and boardwalk located in the northern section of the park, 35km from Narrabri along the Bingara-Narrabri Road. It leads from the carpark to Sawn Rocks, one of Australia's best examples of the geological formation known as organ-piping.

13. Waa Gorge – medium 2.5km return
The walk begins at the picnic area and leads to the twin waterholes which are significant to the Aboriginal people. Their name Mt-Bulsh, means 'two eyes'. This medium grade walk is 10m return and will take 45 minutes to an hour. From here you are entering a wilderness area and the track is not well defined. As you go left around the waterholes, climb up the hill and walk along beside the creek. From here the track follows the creek bed to the gorge. Exploring the gorge further could take a full day and should only be attempted by experienced walkers equipped with suitable maps and provisions.

Driver Awareness / Come-try-day

Saturday 19th of June was set for the Clubs first Driver awareness training day in well over two years. Around 14 members and visitors turned up bright and early. After intro's Graeme got stuck into some theory, and was straight on over to the hill climb for correct stall/reverse recovery techniques. After everyone had their turn, Dave blew two tyres attempting to show off. It doesn't pay. Then over to the driveway gully for some off camber and over-braking techniques, and a little driving in mud. It was then over to Pauls gully which is always a great safe playing area for those starting off driving obstacles. Lunch was in the shearing shed whilst it drizzled with recovery gear theory and demonstrations. After lunch, we were all over at Tip Gully for side angles and winch recovery techniques. Everyone enjoyed themselves and had a great day out. Lot of thanks to Graeme for the training.
